

Bulgarian Orthodontic Society

The Bulgarian Orthodontic Society was established in 1992. Currently it has over 80 members.

The first president of BOO was Professor Valentin Moutafchiev (1992-2007). Since 2007 the president is Assoc. Prof. Laura Andreeva.

The BOO participated in establishing the World Federation of Orthodontics in 1995, and then the European Federation of Orthodontics in 1996.

Annually the Bulgarian Orthodontic Society organizes conferences with prominent lecturers.

In 2002 BOO hosted the General assembly of FEO in Sofia, Bulgaria.

In 2007 BOO hosted the Balkan Orthodontic Symposium with lecturers Prof. Bishara and Prof. Athanasiou.

In 2008 BOO hosted an EOS sponsored orthodontic postgraduates course by Prof. Bouarel.

The 2009 meeting of BOS took place on September 12th, 2009. Guest-lecturer was Dr Giuseppe Scuzzo and the main topic was "Adult orthodontics". Topics of the preliminary program included: "Treatment goals of adult orthodontics", "Compromise in treatment results in adult cases", "Use of lingual technique" and "Indications for lingual technique in different type of malocclusions".
